EMPLOYMENT OFFICE.

THE PLAN OF IRRIGATION.

The Northern Pacific Taking the Lull in Developing Arid Land.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 11.—T. F. Oakes, president of the Northern Pacific railroad, was in this city last week, accompanied by General Solicitor McNaught and General Traffic manager Hannaford, to discuss with the Western members of the senate and house a plan to be laid before congress at this session for the irrigation of the arid lands of the West.

Oakes proposes that congress give each of the western states the arid land within its borders. The Northern Pacific will lend its aid to irrigation companies to be formed under authority of individual states for the improvement of these lands. The proposition to take the irrigation problem out of the hands of the general government is based on the claim that a move to appropriate the millions necessary to carry out a scheme of irrigation will meet with strong opposition in the East, and also on the claim that congress will take fifteen years to accomplish what the state legislatures might do in five.

A PERFECT DELUGE.

CALIFORNIA IS ALMOST FLOODED WITH WATER.

The Sacramento River Twenty-Seven Feet Above Low Water Mark and Still Raging.

COTTONWOOD, Cal., Dec. 11.—The heaviest rain ever known to fall in Shasta county fell here yesterday. The Sacramento river is twenty-seven feet above low water mark and still rising. Cottonwood creek is twenty-five feet above low water mark and within nineteen inches of reaching the railroad bridge, covering thousands of acres of land, making many of the county roads impassable. Mrs. John Dorris' house is surrounded with three or four feet of water, and should the rain continue its downpour through the night it is in danger of being swept away. The half mile of railroad bridge on the south edge of town is in a very rocky condition and is expected to be washed away at every moment. It is guarded by a large crew of men. Four hundred yards of railroad track on the south end of the bridge is washed away. A railroad bridge at Hooker station, three miles south of here, was washed away this afternoon, also a half mile of track. Eight inches of rain fell during the past twenty-four hours, and at this writing continues to pour down with no prospect of letting up. Such a storm has never been known to rage in Northern California. No trains can reach or pass Cottonwood inside of two or three days.

AN EIGHT FOOT RISE.

RED BLUFF, Cal., Dec. 11.—It is very probable, judging from the weather and the river, that a large portion of the Sacramento valley will be flooded before night. The river has risen eight feet since 10 o'clock, and is rising at the rate of two feet per hour now. Its height at 8 o'clock was twenty-three feet. The rain continues to fall very hard and the creeks running into the Sacramento are very full. Reed's creek bridge, near Red Bluff, is being washed away on the south approach.

A GOOD CAPTURE.

Opium Smugglers Suffer Arrest at Tacoma by U. S. Authorities.

TACOMA, Wash., Dec. 11.—Early this morning a most important capture of a band of smugglers was made at Ocean Wharf by Charles A. Billing, deputy U. S. customs inspector, together with 290 taels of opium, valued at $2210. For several years the Sound country has been infested with a gang of opium smugglers, and although inspectors have been constantly on the alert, only a few have been captured, and these only "stool pigeons" for leaders. Two of the most notorious smugglers that ever practiced in the state are Bill Easton, alias "Black Bill," and Jack Powers. These, with a confederate named Fisher, who has been conductor for the Northern Pacific Railroad Co., are now in custody of Deputy U. S. Marshal Price at the county jail.

Noted Murderer Arrested.

SPokane Falls, Dec. 11.—At Garfield, Whitman county, Sunday evening a California detective arrested a man supposed to be Peter Olsen, a noted murderer whose capture has been reported repeatedly always with the same result, mistaken identity. The detective is sure he has only the original Peter Olsen this time. He has been in the neighborhood for more than a month working up the case and claims to have made the arrest only after convincing himself beyond all doubt. He will leave for California with his prisoner as soon as requisition papers can be got.

Robbed of All he Had.

OLYMPIA, Dec. 11.—Samuel Lennox was held up by two men near Gilmore's ranch on the Olympia and Chehalis Valley railroad, late this afternoon. One of the men pointed a pistol at his head. They then took $2.50 from him, stripped him of his outer garments, hat, shoes, stockings, etc., and putting a pistol to his head told him to go to —. He made his way to a house where he was furnished some clothing.

DISGRACEFUL.

Spokane Falls Undertakers Carry Rivality to an Extreme Point.

SPokane Falls, Dec. 11.—A disgraceful row is to be ventilated in the courts to-morrow morning, growing out of the jealousy of two undertaking firms over the body of Harrington, the printer who committed suicide the other day. Bixby & Webster were first called in and given charge of the body. The relatives telegraphed for the remains from Texas, and another firm, Hall & Noble, offered to embalm the body and send it to Texas cheaper than Bixby & Webster. The latter firm refused to give up the body unless an exorbitant sum was paid for the services rendered. Lawyers were called in, and the body has been attached.

One Hundred Millions.

NEW YORK, Dec. 11.—English capital to the amount of $100,000,000 is about to be invested in this country in a single enterprise, a project that throws far into the background in the matter of comparative importance every financial scheme of so-called European syndicates that has been exploited. This project is intended to embrace a variety of purposes. One of the chief objects will be to provide credit for new American railroad projects. It will be technically known as a "financing" company, acting upon principles and along lines long recognized in the English financial world.

Raging Storms in Pennsylvania.

PITTSBURG, Dec. 11.—The most destructive wind and rain storm that ever visited the western portion of Westmoreland county passed the new city of Jennette early this morning. Houses were blown down and unroofed and trees torn up by the roots and carried a long distance. Two large three-story frame buildings were completely demolished. A number of dwellings were moved from their foundations and in some instances badly damaged. No lives were lost.

AUMSVILLE NOTES.

The Waldo Hills literary society is flourishing. At its last Thursday evening's meeting the question of taxing church property was discussed. Pretty much all the local talkers took part. The debate was animated and friendly. The next question, "Resolved, that foreigners should reside in the United States fifteen years before being permitted to vote," will be discussed. Your correspondent has the negative against his views; but will give them the best he has got. We are progressing here. Last winter the society would not touch the question last debated with a forty-foot pole; and to have discussed it as we did last Thursday night, would have broken us up. Now, people are beginning to see that there are two sides to every question, and that other people have rights as well as themselves. This is what free discussion does. We have not yet reached the "Tariff Question," but will do so during the Winter. Meanwhile the Free Trade club is seeking information on the subject, under some difficulties. The matter was discussed at Aumsville on the 3d inst., and Hon. Lewis Bleskey, of Turner, undertook the role of professional instructor. Two other local lights also took a hand in the discussion. G.
